Mrs. M. A. Low entertained guests at New Year's dinner and was hostess at a small Kensington suite this morning. Her son, Mr. Dean Low, and Mrs. Low of Bartlesville, Ok., visited Mr. and Mrs. Low, and other guests at the Low home from Bartlesville were: Mr. and Mrs. L. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breen. Those who sat around the table at dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Dean Low, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Breen, Mrs. Albert T. Reid and her daughter Marian, and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Low.

Those who were entertained this afternoon at thimbles by Mrs. Low were: Mrs. Charles Albert Phillips of Seattle, Wash., who is visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. DeWitte C. Nellis, Mrs. Charles Barnes, Mrs. B. F. Akers, Mrs. Paul Walker, Mrs. Albert T. Reid, Miss Metta Robinson and Miss Bess Campbell.

Open house was kept by a few Topeka families New Year's day in the informal fashion suitable to such occasions. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Salles of Potwin Place received during the afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. Everett Dallas of San Antonio, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas, Mrs. Dallas' mother, Mrs. Anna J. Wilson. Among the out-of-town guests who called during the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Don Sebastian of Chicago, who are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Quinton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Pierce kept open house in celebration of their third wedding anniversary. Their guests were the young married people of their set. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce have moved into a pretty new home in Jewell avenue. They have occupied the house only a few months, and the party yesterday was somewhat in the nature of a house warming. Their residence is where most of the newlyweds of the social set are making their homes.

Bishop and Mrs. Frank R. Mills-paugh, according to their custom, received their friends informally New Year's afternoon. The party was assisted by their daughters, Mrs. C. B. Thomas, Mrs. John Abrahams, Mrs. C. E. Dewey of Manhattan, Mrs. Harold Copeland of Junction City and Miss Mayme Hamilton.

The Alta Vista club will meet Monday with Mrs. Thomas Dewey.

People who have been attending the Radcliffe concert this winter will be interested in a bit of news concerning Madame Gertrude-Beache, the French contralto, who gave one of the most pleasing concerts of the season. Word has been received that she is seriously ill at the Roosevelt hospital in New York, and that an operation of blood transfusion had been performed in the hope of saving her life. Madame Gertrude-Beache is the leading soprano of the Manhattan Opera company and is the wife of Dr. George G. Rambaud of Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dean will entertain their dinner-bridge club Wednesday evening.

A good many inquiries have been received regarding the meeting of the Woman's Kansas Day club, and among them is the often repeated question as to whether the Woman's Kansas Day club is a Republican club, as is the Kansas Day club, an organization of men which meets at about the same time in Topeka.

Answering the inquiry, Mrs. W. A. Johnston, president of the club, says that the organization has nothing whatever to do with politics of any kind. It was organized and is maintained for the purpose of promoting patriotism and an acquaintance among the women of Kansas, without reference to parties or sects. It is open to all loyal persons, both men and women, in the state of Kansas.

The meeting for this year promises to be one of exceptional interest and enthusiasm.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Williams will entertain guests at dinner tomorrow.

Covers will be placed for: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Joss, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. McCarter, Miss Catherine McCarter, Miss Jessie McCarter, Mr. William McCarter, Miss Ethel Joss, Mr. Clifford Joss and Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Much more youthful than the burdensome, scarred and huge rug muffs of recent years, are these coquettish fur wearables of the modern maid. The muffs are made of a diminutive collar, made of a narrow band of the fur—the new kolinsky—and a plaited frill of moire ribbon which fits around the back of the neck. The muffs are a strip of kolinsky attached to a wide, frilled bag of moire ribbon which forms the new muffs—gauntlets over the arms.

The Phi Theta Phi fraternity held their annual New Year's party last night. A pretty dinner-dance was given at the Virginia. The dining room was artistically decorated in purple and white.
